

Working experience and occupation(s) during the past 10 years

Mr Peter Ng Choong Joo, a Malaysian, is the General Manager of Corporate Finance and Investment for the Rimbunan Hijau Group. He joined Rimbunan Hijau Group in 2003. He has more than 35 years of working experience in various capacities in Bank Negara Malaysia, Utama Wardly Merchant Bank Berhad and Bank Utama (Malaysia) Berhad. Presently, he holds directorships in RH Insurance Ltd and Lubuk Tiara Sdn. Bhd., who is involved in captive insurance & oil palm plantation.

CAREER HISTORY:

YEAR/PLACE	ASSIGNMENT	RESPONSIBILITY
2003 – Present Malaysia	General Manager of Corporate Finance for the Rimbunan Hijau Group, Sibul, Sarawak, Malaysia	Providing consultancy services in strategic planning, corporate restructuring, listing, investments, acquisitions, injections, divestments financial feasibility studies, Treasury Risk Management and funds raising in capital markets & banks.
1995 – 2001 Kuching	Senior Vice President, Bank Utama (Malaysia) Bhd, Head Office, Kuching	Evaluate and approve proposals for mergers, acquisitions and divestments for corporate clients; Appraise and approve applications for direct listing on Malaysia Stock Exchange (IPO), Loan Syndication, Bond Issues and reverse take-over (RTO); Appraise & approve corporate banking loan proposals; Evaluate applications for raising funds from capital market and advise on corporate restructuring, rights issue and take-over.
1994 – 1998 Kuching	Director, Utama Merchant Bank, Kuala Lumpur

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

- (a) MBA – Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh
- (b) Associate of The Chartered Institute of Bankers (ACIB), London